

one day AT techtv ...

Jennifer: On the next CyberCrime...

Jennifer:... we will look at the sad case of one of our own gone bad.

Jennifer: Robyn started her life as an alien to this country, a law abiding immigrant from a foreign world.

Jennifer: She came to TechTV three years ago and quickly became one of our most popular chat hosts.

Jennifer: But Robyn had a darker side, a side that was enhanced when she met the man who would change her life forever.

Jennifer: The Bandit.

Jennifer: With his high tech CB Radio hook up and black Trans-Am, the Bandit led poor Robyn to a world of high speed car chases, chat room brawls, and unregistered software.

Jennifer: We'll take an extended look at their torrid love affair...

Jennifer:... and car chases. Lots of car chases. These fugitives from justice have a long way to go and a short time to get there before the long arm of the law locks them up for good.

Jennifer: It's all true! Honest! And it's on the next CyberCrime! Watch us, please! Please, you can pretend that I'm the girl from "American Beauty" if you want, but dear god, don't make me go back to 21st Century Homes! Waaaaaaaaaaaaatch!

Now back to our show...
