

hot buttered days AT techtv ...

Voice Over: The blackness of space.

Voice Over: It started its life in the fires of the big bang.

Voice Over: Hurtling aimlessly through space for eons like others of its kind.

Voice Over: It would have continued on this course forever ...

Voice Over: ... until a simple press of a button on a Magno-Gravitational Gizmo ...

Voice Over: ... brings it hurtling through the atmosphere to its final destination!

Brett: Hmm, the signal cut out. I wonder what is interfering with it? Hmm, the signal interference and the dark shadow that suddenly appeared over me is almost as if a large asteroid is falling from the sky and is about to squash me. No, it couldn't be THAT obvious. I probably just forgot to recharge my phone. Oh silly me

::Boom:: ::Pow:: ::Crash::

Brett: No! I knew I should have put on my indigo fire i-Pod cover! Hello, fashion police, I need some help here! The fire from the five ton asteroid that's currently crushing me clashes with my zebra striped i-Pod cover and it's getting to be really annoying! Help me, pleaaaaaaaase!

We'll be right back ...
