

RELIVING THOSE DAYS AT TECHTV ...

One Week Later ...

Carmine: We return to Techlive as a respected journalist asks Leo Laporte questions about his travels in time and space. Let's listen in.

Martin: So, Leo, our fans want to know all about your adventures in time! And since I'm the all-powerful "Twisted Lister," I'm going to ask you them in a list!
Leo: How original.

Martin: Now Leo, our viewers are all into this time-travel stuff. They all are glued to reruns of 'Quantum Leap' on the Sci-Fi channel and they never leave the house. That makes them qualified to ask: 5) Why did you decide to come back in time from the year 2004?

Leo: Simple, my boy, simple. Robots.
Martin: Robots?
Leo: Robots on the verge of wiping out all human life. I've come back in time to

Martin: Like in 'the Terminator?'
Leo: Never heard of it.
Martin: Okay, next question, 4) When the killer robots take over the world, what's change events that will result in destruction of all humanity.

Martin: Paris who?
Leo: You'll find out when the video hits the web in about 2 years.
Martin: Video over the web? You mean video conferencing over the web will actually work in 2004?
Leo: Only time will tell, my boy! Next!

hot on TV?
Leo: Reality TV. Anything to do with Donald Trump or Paris Hilton.

Martin: Our viewers want to know, 3) If you could change the future, knowing what you do now, what would you change and why?
Leo: I'd have filed for divorce earlier. In fact ... you know I might just ...
Martin: What was that?
Leo: Nothing, nothing ... next question!

Martin: Okay, okay, this one is from Steve Abrams, that wacky guy. D) If you could hook up with girls who aren't hot now but will be in the future, who would you and why?
Leo: Hillary Duff.
Martin: Isn't she like 13?
Leo: The future waits for no one!

Martin: But isn't that illegal?
Leo: Not if you're a Republican.
Martin: You mean they get special rights in 2004?
Leo: Oh, you can't imagine.
Martin: Remind me to register to vote.
Leo: You and me both, my boy, you and me both. Onward!

Martin: Okay, the last question, 1) Will there be a TechTV in the year 2004? That's a good one. Will we all be here? Or are we all going to be replaced by Donald Trump and the killer robots?

Martin: Bent on spreading what?
 Leo: Video game programming, I'm afraid.
 Martin: You can't be serious!
 Leo: Oh, I am! Video games 24-7. No "Tech lifestyle" reports, no dot-com or market recaps. Just beautiful people and vapid gaming news! The horror! The horror!

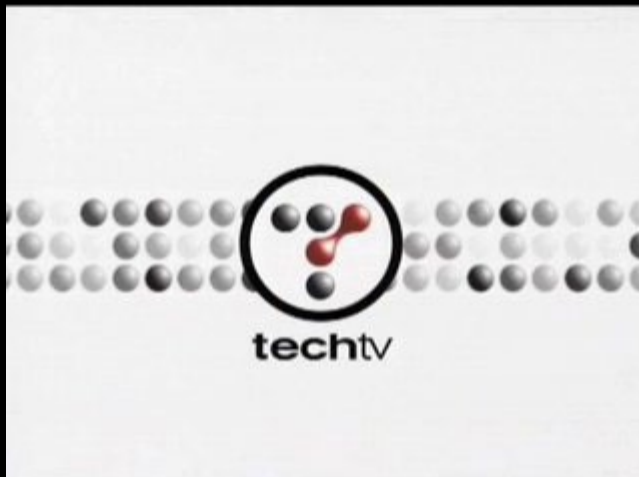

Leo: Martin, this is a hard one for me to answer. I've seen too much, much too much in my time. In the future, TechTV, ::sigh::, TechTV is facing hard times. Many of the people we see here will be gone. The whole station will be sold to an evil conglomerate bent on spreading ...

Carmine: Carmine Gallo, back in the TechLive studios. My, those were some unusual answers from Mr. Laporte. In fact some of the answers contradict statements made to me when he appeared in this studio just last week. It will be interesting to hear the truth ...

Carmine: What's this? I've been handed a memo. It seems like I've been ... transferred to the Toledo office? Oh baby, I hit the big time now!

Another New Strip? God Lord!
